FEBRUARY 2016

- 359 Easily one of the toughest and most desirable modern era Lionel O gauge passenger cars. This George H. Bush Spirit of America Michigan Whistle Stop Tour observation car. Former Lionel employee Todd Wagner recounts the history of this car, "I wrote an article for the 1999 Edition of TM's Price & Rarity Guide on how the car was made.
- All the cars were hand-decorated, using a 6-19038 Anheuser-Busch Passenger Car as a base. (Those were made for Budweiser's annual gift catalog.) The A-B graphics were painted over in gold, and then a combination of decals and dry transfers were used to redecorate it for the 1992 Whistle Stop Tour through Michigan. A Lionel Circle-L lapel pin was added to simulate a drumhead.
- Between 60 and 70 were produced The rarity, combined with the backstory and distribution method, make it among the most desirable pieces produced by Lionel in modern times."
