

TOY TRAIN AUCTION LOT DESCRIPTIONS

SEPTEMBER 12 AND 13, 2014

- 801 Lionel Postwar O gauge 1007 scout caboose with raised board on catwalk in an original box. Car has minimal run time and super lettering on both sides, C7-8. Box has tape repairs inside but no missing flaps.
- 802 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6017-185 gray Santa Fe caboose in original box. Car has a little run time with box rubs on the raised edges but has nice lettering on both sides, C7. Correct box is missing perforated window but all flaps are intact.
- 803 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6557 brown smoke caboose in original box. Caboose has repaired roof overhangs and repainted lower roof sections, cupola is original and sides are as well. Number on the right and smoke stack is clear and unpainted. Car has some rubs and small scratches. Original box is very square and sturdy but has two cuts across two sides that were likely from opening a box.
- 804 Desirable Lionel Postwar O 6357 A.T. & S.F. father & son caboose, very nice shape with gorgeous lettering on both sides, C7-8.
- 805 Lionel Postwar O gauge Rio Grande caboose in original box. Very scarce variation without ladder slots. A few tiny roof rubs but otherwise a super piece, C8. Original box has missing inner flaps from one end and writing on the opposite end flap.
- 806 Lionel Postwar O gauge 1007 Tuscan caboose in original box. car has minor rubs and scratches, C6-7. Box is complete and very square with no tape repairs.
- 807 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6357 illuminated caboose perforated box only in nice shape with no missing flaps or tape repairs and all perfs completely intact. One small bent corner on one end flap.
- 808 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6017-100 dark purple Boston and Maine caboose in original box. Car displays well on one side and appears C7 but has a dart sized hole in the opposite side on the number 6 as seen in the pictures. Box is complete with light staining and all perfs intact on sides and bottom.
- 809 Lionel Postwar O gauge 4357 electronic caboose in original box. Car has the harder to find raised board on catwalk with a matching Tuscan smoke stack, C7. Box is missing all flaps from one end but remains square and stable.
- 810 Scarce UNRUN Lionel Postwar O gauge 6447 Pennsylvania caboose in original box. Car is virtually new and unrun, C9. Box has a detached end flap and one missing inner flap from the same end but very nice otherwise.
- 811 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6427-500 girls set caboose in very nice shape but with a few light box rubs, C7.
- 812 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6427-1 original box only in nice shape with a missing coupler protection flap and two splits on one end flap. Very nice and square otherwise.
- 813 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6417 caboose, no New York zone, in original box. Car has minor scratches but displays nicely, C6. The original box is nice and square, complete and has no tape repairs but minor shelf wear.
- 814 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6017 painted glossy caboose in original box. Body is an orange mold with glossy Tuscan paint. car has minor paint wear but nice overall, C6-7. original box is a more unusual variation with no missing flaps and is nice and square with some shelf wear.
- 815 Lionel Postwar O gauge dark gray 2420 DL & W work cabooses in original boxes. One is a rubber stamped sans serif variation that appears C6 but has a crack in the roof next to the smoke stack another on one of the tool boxes and a small ding on one side of the frame. The other is a heat stamped, serif lettering version in nice shape, C6-7. Both boxes are rough with most flaps missing.
- 816 Lionel Postwar O gauge 6517-75 Erie C301 bay window caboose. Nice looking caboose that appears C7, however, the smoke stack has a broken tab and will need to be glued into place or have a new one to replace it.
- 817 Two Lionel Postwar O gauge 6517 bay window cabooses. Both variations of the Lionel Lines cabooses are offered here including the harder to find underscored version in C7-8 condition while the more common version is C6-7 with some box rubs on the sides.

TOY TRAIN AUCTION LOT DESCRIPTIONS

SEPTEMBER 12 AND 13, 2014

- 1004 For the first time in history Stout Auctions has the privilege to auction a prototype production sample direct from the Lionel archives. This 6464-900 New York Central boxcar shell was shipped directly to us from Lionel and will include a letter from Lionel stating the history of the shell and certifying it as an authentic piece from the archives. This production sample car is an unpainted green shell, postwar type IV shell, and has decaled lettering. There is no frame, trucks, door guides or brake wheel. Attached to the car is also a tag from the Lionel archives with the following information:

#6464-900 (I)
"NYC"
Boxcar
*Shell Only

This shell is a slightly darker green of the two shells that we have from Lionel. Very easy to see the difference from a few feet away. Do not miss your chance to own a piece of toy train history with rock solid provenance.

- 1005 Lionel prewar standard gauge brown state set consisting of a 408E center cab electric locomotive, 412 California, 413 Colorado, 414 Illinois and 416 New York passenger and observation cars. All original set, missing one grab iron and has three loose grab irons from three different cars. One pantograph holder is broken and missing so it stays erect all of the time. A very nice set with no touch ups and all original parts, C6.

- 1006 For the first time in history Stout Auctions has the privilege to auction a prototype production sample direct from the Lionel archives. This 6464-900 New York Central boxcar shell was shipped directly to us from Lionel and will include a letter from Lionel stating the history of the shell and certifying it as an authentic piece from the archives. This production sample car is an unpainted green shell, postwar type IV shell, and has decaled lettering. There is no frame, trucks, door guides or brake wheel. Attached to the car is also a tag from the Lionel archives with the following information:

#6464-900 (L)
"NYC"
Boxcar
*Shell Only

This shell is a lighter green of the two shells that we have from Lionel. Very easy to see the difference from a few feet away. Do not miss your chance to own a piece of toy train history with rock solid provenance.

- 1007 Lionel prewar standard gauge Blue Comet set consisting of a 400E steam locomotive with copper trim and boiler bands, 400T tender, 420 Faye, 421 Westphal and 422 Tempel Pullman and observation cars. All original set with no touch ups, loose or missing parts, C6-6 plus. Three original boxes included with the set are for the 400E which is missing two flaps from one end and three from the other but still retains the one flap stamped 400E BLUE; it is also stamped 400E BLUE on one side. The other boxes are marked 421 and 422 both with BLUE designation. Those boxes have split seams down the length of the boxes and are missing most of their end flaps.

- 1008 Gorgeous, unrun, Lionel postwar O gauge 1587S Girls train in brick original boxes with original set box as well. The set consists of a 2037-500 loco, 1130T-500 tender, 6462-500 New York Central canister car, 6464-515 M-K-T boxcar, 6464-510 New York Central boxcar, 6436-500 Lehigh Valley hopper car and a 6427-500 Pennsylvania caboose. Trains are C9+ with no signs of handling and no run time at all, this is as clean as it gets for having been opened. Set also includes the 1043-500 transformer in the correct -500 box that has never been removed and a cord that is still coiled up as the factory worker left it, bottle of pellets, tamper, tube of lubricant, two green wire coils, CTC lockon, engine wrapping paper and locomotive instruction sheet sheet. The set box is very square and clean, however, there are two small tears on top resulting from an overzealous child attempting to open the box as well as a bit of writing on the side with the set number that says "pastel set, birthday 7/14/62" as well as #37 in grease pencil and $49.95 in the upper right hand corner. The 6462-500 canister car box is the only box with any issues and that is contained to tears on both tuck flap creases. The set has stayed in the same family from the time of purchase until it was consigned for sale.
